

The same signals detect the residual on one dataset and not the other

On LoveDA every signal lands between 0.434 and 0.622 — at most 0.09 above the floor. On OpenEarthMap the same runner-up class score reaches 0.913: where `background` is rare, a strong second place means a real class was suppressed.

